January 10, 2017

Greetings and shalom from the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary in northeast Iowa where Rev. Dr. Silas Kessler met Ruth and where Si received his Master of Divinity degree a few decades ago. Zach Spurgeon, Logan Ellis and I are enjoying a class together on Young Adult Spiritual Formation during this two week “intensive” session which includes two weeks before and two weeks after our classes in Dubuque with online study assignments, interactive discussions, lectures, papers, readings, etc.

Zach and Logan are residential students and I am a distance online student which has allowed me to continue to serve the Harvard United Church of Christ as their solo pastor since April of 2009. The Spirit continues exciting work in Harvard, such as preparations for our 9th Annual Harvard UCC “Reach Out: Dare to Care” Youth Mission Trip to Camp Courageous this June just 45 minutes southwest of Dubuque. Many of the new spiritual activities that happen these days within the life and fellowship of Harvard UCC emanated via First Presbyterian, so thank you for your inspiration!

The emphasis of UDTS on spiritual formation, mission, evangelism and staying connected to Christ through daily worship, spiritual disciplines and class cohorts for distance students is beneficial to our development as pastors. This intensive will be my last one in Dubuque, so mixed, heartfelt emotions are certainly overflowing. After completing online classes this spring, there will be only one credit hour remaining before completion of the M.Div. degree, Supervised Practice Ministry (SPM), which I hope to complete through First Presbyterian, perhaps with a new called pastor as supervisor.

All PC(USA) candidates for ordination are also required to pass five ordination exams: Bible Content, Church Polity, Bible Exegesis, Worship and Sacraments and Theological Competence. So far I am four for four with only the Theology exam remaining this summer. The excellent pedagogy of Rev. Dr. David McCarthy and Rev. Dr. Dan Deffenbaugh during the completion of Lay Pastor requirements at Hastings College during the 2007-2008 school year has certainly enhanced the journey through UDTS. Special thanks also to Rev. Dr. Bill Nottage-Tacey and Kili Wenburg for their spiritual direction. More of you are encouraged to set up an appointment with Kili for spiritual direction and utilize the many other opportunities to grow closer to our Redeemer offered at First Presbyterian these days! Your prayers, encouragement and financial support are all very much appreciated.

Shalom in Christ,
Dave Johnson

Dear FPC, Session, and Trustees,

Thank you very much for renovating our Youth Room. We love the new fridge the couches, and the cross. We are grateful that the congregation has invested in our spiritual development.

The bright colors and the new floors make for a 'enjoyable learning environment. Thank you once again for the new room.

We look forward to many years of enjoying the new room and learning about God.

Love,
the 6th and 7th
grade Sunday School classes

“Just wanted to share with you...I used the cabbage, potatoes, onions, and canned veggies with 2 pounds of hamburger, and made vegetable soup today that I got Saturday from the food truck. I froze 2 gallon bags of apples for pie or apple crisp at some point, All this is SO appreciated! Your church and you people are a blessing. This food helps so much, I had gotten a turkey at Christmas from there and bought another, had the kids and the grandkids over for Christmas dinner. I ended up with leftovers of course (as I had planned for) and have 10 TV dinners in the freezer from Christmas. THANK YOU SO MUCH! Please share with your parishioner if you like.”

I received this message from a retiree who got groceries from us. I wanted to share this with our congregation. --Jane Marsh”

“Dear First Presbyterian Church, I am writing on behalf of Foundation for Peace to thank you for your kind support and your donation in support of FFP programs. Your financial gift (of $1,000) gives hope, transforms communities and brings a brighter, healthier future to many. It also allows us to continue our vial work and expand our outreach in the Dominican Republic, Haiti and Kenya! We know that these efforts are only possible because of the contributions received from generous donors like you. Thank you again for supporting the FFP. Sincerely, --Kenneth W. Culver M.D., Executive Director, Foundation for Peace (FFP)”

“Thank you for your generous donation of $260.00 raised through your Poinsettia program to help with utilities assistance during these cold winter months. We value your generous gift and promise to use it with the utmost of stewardship, maximizing its yield in aiding local families. May God richly bless you this day and forever! In CHRIST’s Service, --Dale L. Brandenburg, Major, The Salvation Army”

“We want to send a letter to thank you for your donation of 3 bags of groceries = 32 items given to the Hastings Food Pantry. What a wonderful donation! So many people will be blessed with this gift! God bless in all you do!! –Hastings Food Pantry, Board of Directors”

First Sunday of the Month is Food Pantry Sunday. Bring your Food Pantry donation(s) and place in the blue totes in the Memorial Room. Non-perishable needs requested by the Pantry are: paper products, pastas, canned fruit, boxed meals, canned vegetables, peanut butter, jelly, and canned chicken, tuna, turkey. Every bit helps!

Happy Nappy Diaper Collection. The fourth Sunday of each month is designated for the collection of diapers. Please bring a box and place in the basket outside of the Hands Around the World Store. They are collected and distributed to those in need in the community, currently through Catholic Social Services. The congregation is encouraged to bring diapers to help those most vulnerable.

Collecting Crosses for the Cross Wall

Do you have a cross (framed, carved, pendant...) you could share for the "cross wall" (facing the Living Scrapbook Wall)? Crosses received by the church will be considered to be on "indefinite loan" but can be returned to the giver at any time if necessary. A guide-book will be created with photos and descriptions of each cross.

Coming Soon: Wednesday Evening Bible Study

Beginning February 8, Joe Black will lead participants in a study entitled "Grace and Gratitude," an exploration of the freeing power of God's grace and the importance and power of saying "thank you." This study will be held in the Kessler Room, 5:15-6:45 p.m. every other Wednesday evening for six sessions. Study participants can enjoy a night off from cooking, as a communal meal is part of the fun! ($2 suggested donation) Participant books are complimentary. All levels of biblical knowledge are welcome in this study, and please feel free to arrive as you are able (latecomers are welcome!).

Learning to Listen to God: Lectio Divina

Those attending the Contemplative Prayer class on January 8 were instructed in the basics of the prayer practice known as lectio divina, a wonderful way of combining scripture reading with intimate prayer. The 4-step prayer format described in the box involves choosing a scripture (Psalms and gospels are great starting points!) and then reading it repeatedly, being attentive to the ways the passage resonates with you, personally, and what response(s) it elicits in you. Please contact Kili if you have any questions about lectio divina or if you would like help getting started using it in your own life!

The Four R's of Lectio Divina

Lectio (Reading)

Take your time and read the passage. Get a sense of what it is saying. Read the passage a second time. Listen for any words or phrases that strike you, and listen in your heart.

Meditatio (Reflecting)

Read the passage again, slowly. As you pause on the words or phrases that strike you, take time to consider what the word, phrase, or passage means, particularly in your life.

Oratio (Responding)

Read the passage again, slowly. Consider now how God has spoken to you in this passage and respond back to Him. You may want to consider how this passage is asking you to act differently.

Contemplatio (Remaining)

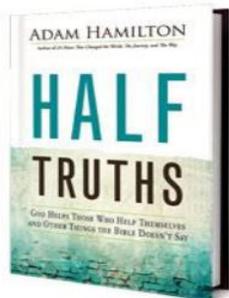

Now take some time to simply remain in the presence of God.

Langenberg Legacy Lesson Program. First Presbyterian Church is pleased to invite you to participate in a very exciting program offered by our church. Several years ago, through the generosity of the late Luella Langenberg, a program was established to encourage the children and youth of our church in their musical pursuits. Parent(s) of students in grades 1-12 may apply for up to $250 per semester to offset the cost of private music instruction. Applicable areas of study include: piano, voice, guitar, or any band/orchestral instrument. Grants are limited to one per child. Parent(s) must be members of First Presbyterian Church and students must be active participants in the church choir/music program. Lessons are verified by Worship, Arts and Music committee members. NOTE: Although grants are renewable, parents MUST RE-APPLY EACH SEMESTER.

January Prayer Focus: Healthy Beginnings

As are all of our communion offering recipients, Healthy Beginnings is in need of not just our financial gifts but also our gifts of prayer. Please pray for the children being served, the nurses who provide care and education, and the parents who are humbly receiving these services in order to give their children a healthier beginning than they would be able to on their own.
