LIGHTING OF THE SECOND ADVENT CANDLE

Women of FPC

(The tradition of First Presbyterian Church is to invite a family to light the Advent candle. Our Christian understanding of family includes all sisters and brothers in Christ who live in fellowship together and take care of one another. This morning, we invite members of our FPC family: Vonda Essex, Kathy Utter, Jan Bolliger, and Pam Lay)

This is the second Sunday in Advent. Today, we light two purple candles. The first is the candle of hope.

Advent is a time of waiting and hoping.

The second is the candle of peace.

We anticipate the coming Christ and the peace he brings!

Isaiah 11 describes the Kingdom of God as a place where hatred, anger, and violence are no more,

Where peace becomes a way of life.

The wolf shall live with the lamb; the leopard shall lie down with the kid. The calf and the lion will feed together.

Violence in our communities will cease; violence between nations will cease. People will work together in harmony, seeking solutions that benefit all.

And a little child shall lead them.

The Church, the body of Christ, will lead this movement for peace.

Today, we light the candle of peace as a prayer and a reminder of God’s vision for the world.

And as this light burns and grows, we will wait, eagerly, longing for the birth of a child and for the peace only love can bring. May peace light up the world. Come, let us worship the Prince of Peace!

CANDLE HYMN “Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus” verse 2 82
(As the family lights the candle on the Advent wreath, the congregation will sing this hymn.)

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, hear us this day as we open our hearts and our spirits to you. These times in which we live are often confusing and fearful. We are pushed to make preparations for a season that is supposed to bring hope and peace, yet we crowd it with obligations and stresses and shut the door to your healing love and compassion. We find ourselves being on edge, fretful, wondering if we have done enough, can do enough. You answer our fears with your voice, "Peace, be still." Help us to hear you. Slow us down. Encourage us to take some time to listen rather than speak, to stop and rest rather than run. Cause us to look around at situations and people who are in need and to place our focus on helping them, for it is in helping your people and reaching out in love that we will find true peace. These things we pray, in Jesus's name.

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Jesus said, “I bring you peace, not the kind of peace the world would give to you...”

Jesus said, “My peace I give to you, now and forever.”

Be at peace. In the name of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, we are forgiven and loved!
Alleluia! Amen!

*RESPONSE “Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me” (no tambourine) 582

*PEACE OF CHRIST

The Peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

(Greet others around you this morning by exchanging the Peace of Christ.)

SHARING THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

Meet in the Memorial Room. We'll carpool to Perkins (1:30p), then go to Regency (2:00p), next to College View (2:45p), and finish up at Kensington (3:10p), enjoying fellowship and spreading Christmas cheer all along the way. Please join us for as much or as little time as you have available. It's a good time!

Tags are on the Giving Tree! The Giving Tree in the Memorial Room supports clients of Assertive Community Treatments, people with severe and persistent mental illness living in our community. Most are without family support and live on disability or nothing.

Please take a tag from the tree, choose to give one or two items suggested on the tag, wrap the gifts, and place the tag back on them. Return gifts to the tree by Tuesday, December 10th, so that ACT staff members have time to deliver the gifts by Christmas. Monetary donations may also be taken to the church office, with checks payable to ACT.

CHRISTMAS LETTERS: THE MUSICAL

Based on the Play by Gail Gaymer Martin

Music and Lyrics by Christy Long

Produced by special arrangement with Christian Publishers

On December 15, during the 10:30 am worship service, the children and youth (age 4 thru 8th Grade) of First Presbyterian Church will bring praise to God by offering a special Christmas program. Join us as we explore the feelings that Joseph, Mary, the Innkeeper, Shepherds, and Angels may have experienced during the time of Jesus's birth. Just as in the original play, children write letters and read them aloud to the biblical characters, and the biblical characters reply, reading from their scrolls. Between each pair of letters, children sing a song that illustrates their content.

The Hastings Symphony Orchestra and First Presbyterian Church are ministry partners, and this Messiah sing-along is always amazing:

“Messiah” sing-along with the Hastings Symphony Orchestra,
TODAY, December 8, 2019 – 2:00 pm downbeat
Masonic Center Auditorium

Grab Handel's “Messiah” vocal score, bring family and friends, and sing along with the HSO for a no-rehearsal reading of this incredible work scored for large chorus and orchestra. The downbeat begins with the prelude, and by the time the final Halleluiah chorus concludes, we will have great fun, a few laughs, and of course, make some incredible music together. All participants are requested to make a freewill donation of $15 or more to offset costs for the HSO instrumentalists.

If you do not own a copy of Handel's “Messiah,” you can purchase one online for around $10. If you use a tablet (computer), the music can be downloaded from www.imslp.com free of charge. Either the older (gray cover) Schirmer edition or the newer (orange cover) Novello edition will work for this “Messiah” sing-along event.

Audience members are invited to attend and listen to the joy of this wonderful music. A freewill donation of $15 or more would also be very helpful in meeting the HSO's expenses.

Some years, the joy of Christmas feels hard to reach. If this is that year for you, you are welcome at the Blue Christmas Ecumenical Service in Hastings. The Blue Christmas service makes space for us to recognize that melancholy or grief can feel particularly sharp during the holiday season. It will be a solemn service of reflection, scripture, and candlelight. If you or anyone you know would appreciate the time to recognize the sacred in the midst of the sadness they might be experiencing, please let them know they are welcome to attend Thursday, December 12th, at 6 pm at First Congregational UCC, 2810 W 7th St. Even in our quiet or lonely times, God is with us, holding us and wrapping us in love.

Hastings College Department of Music Christmas Extravanza TODAY!

The Hastings College Band, Handbells, and Choirs will perform a special holiday concert. December 8, 2019 at 7:30pm–8:30pm at the Masonic Temple, 411 N Hastings Ave, Hastings, NE.

Go & Serve Cinnamon Roll Sales

Let's play a game. How many pans of cinnamon rolls do you think were ordered this year? 100? 120? 150? This year we received orders for 173 pans of cinnamon rolls. That's 1,038 cinnamon rolls.

This announcement officially does three things:

- 1) Marks the official close of all cinnamon roll orders. We simply cannot make any more.
- 2) Reminds you to pick up your order next Sunday, December 15.
- 3) Extends unto you a hearty and sincere word of appreciation.

This sale has quickly become one of our best fundraisers for Go & Serve, so please accept our gratitude and this baker's blessing: May your rolls always rise and your icing fall evenly upon your cinnamon swirls.

Go & Serve Bid Board Auction

The Bid Board is now active! Thank you all for your generous contributions to Bid Board. This project supports our Go & Serve ministry, and it wouldn't happen without your support. We are no longer accepting items, but please swing by the parlor, pick up a bidder number, and see what great items you can find. Bid Board is closes next Sunday, Dec 15, so get those bids going!

POINSETTIAS

Poinsettias may be purchased in honor of or in memory of a loved one. The cost is $15 each. Money raised over the cost will be donated to Salvation Army Utility Assistance Program, which provides money to individuals and families, including children and elderly, towards utilities assistance for necessary electricity, water, and gas.

As with all of The Salvation Army's programs, utilities assistance is an emergency service. To qualify, individuals and families must have received a disconnect notice and meet qualifications of need.

Your donation makes a difference. Please return your order form to the church office as soon as possible.

Food from the Heart

The women of our church have started a mission of giving to our friends and families. This mission is called Food from the Heart. Our plan is to get together on the 1st & 3rd Mondays of each month at 2:00pm to prepare the food for casseroles to be placed in the church freezers. Everything will be ready to go when volunteers arrive. It would be nice to have 5-6 people help prepare the meals.

Casseroles are available to give to anyone who just needs some “Food from the Heart.” To let Nancy Grams know you are coming to help prepare the casseroles or if you have any questions, call or text her at 402-705-8179

Donation Station Has Moved Looking to donate items to Hastings Food Pantry, Happy Nappies, Pine Ridge, Brooks' Bookshelf, and/or SASA? The Mission committee has moved the ongoing collection tubs for these projects into the fellowship hall. If you stop by to take a look, you'll find clearly marked bins with lists of the items for which these agencies are looking. Thank you for your continued support of these vital ministry partners.

Love to Walk? The First Presbyterian Church PEACE Center gym is a great place to walk during the winter months. Shut out of the Mall? The Walkers are your solution from 8:15 to 9:15 Monday through Thursday.

No lectures here about your need to stay fit by walking as you all know that story by now. Afterwards, we have fabulous Café Justo and good conversation, but, hey, that's the bonus option.

And during the spring through the early, fall we walk in the beautiful Heartwell Park, which provides about a one-mile loop – and second loops are available at no extra charge. Interested? Call or text Denny Storer at 402 460 8804.
