Dear First Presbyterian Church Family:

Last week our beloved Office Administrator, Sarah Allen, shared that she has taken a new job. Her last day in the office will be Friday, August 26. Sarah has worked at First Presbyterian Church of Hastings for 13 months and has been a real gift to our church with her warm personality and willingness to pitch in and help wherever she is needed. While I am excited for her and this new opportunity she has, she will be very missed here at FPC Hastings. I give thanks to God for Sarah and the way that she has contributed to our church over the last 13 months! If you get a chance, please make sure you stop by and thank her before she leaves. The good news is that Sarah will continue to be an active member of First Presbyterian Church, so we will still get to see her on Sunday mornings and at church activities.

If you know of anyone who would make a good Office Administrator for our church, please share the opening with them. In the meantime, please pray for our church as we make this staff transition; change can be hard. We trust that God will provide us another excellent staff team member. Pray for the Personnel Committee, they will be assisting me in reviewing candidates, interviewing, and hiring the new Office Administrator. Pray for the volunteers that help to fill in to keep the church office running in the meantime. Pray for our church staff as we cover additional duties in this transition time and hopefully welcome a new colleague soon. And don't forget to say a prayer of thanksgiving for Sarah and the gifts and talents that she shared with us.

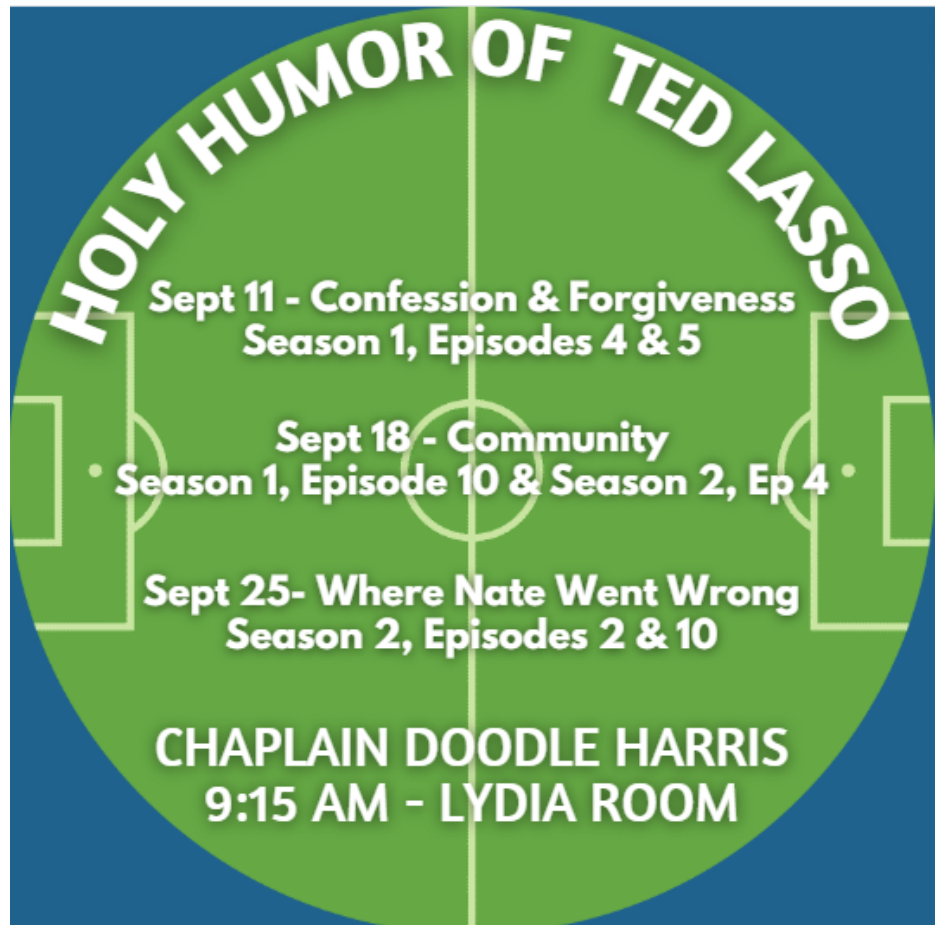

Your servant in Christ,
Pastor Greg

TED LASSO TV SERIES FOUND ON APPLE TV

The series follows Ted Lasso, an American college football coach who is hired to coach an English soccer team in an attempt by its owner to spite her ex-husband. Lasso tries to win over the skeptical English market with his folksy, optimistic demeanor while dealing with his inexperience in the sport.

Join HC Chaplain Doodle Harris' Forum Series as she makes correlations between specific episodes and our lives as Christians.

Snacks for Hasting College Bible Study

This year, weekly Bible Studies and Monthly Movie chats will be provided to Hastings College and Employees through the Chaplain's office and new Chaplain Rev. Doodle Harris! However, Doodle needs your help! I am hoping churches in Central-Nebraska will consider providing snacks for these activities (because, let's face it, College Students love to be fed!). Please consider gathering snacks including small bags of popcorn or chips, cookies, sodas, waters, and candy (nothing that requires a microwave)! You can deliver these snacks directly to Hastings College chapel or make arrangements with Doodle for her to come pick them up (or meet me somewhere in between).

If gathering snacks is not ideal, consider making a donation! Amazon Cards, Walmart Cards, Target Cards are also fabulous for snacks! Checks can also be made payable to Hastings College with "Chapel Snacks" in the memo line. (A check for $100 can feed them for a month!)

Checks and gift cards can be sent to:
Hastings College
Office of the Chaplain
710 N. Turner Ave.
Hastings, NE 68901

If you have any questions or would like to know other ways your church can be involved in collegiate ministry at Hastings College, reach out to Doodle:
doodle.harris@hastings.edu use her cell: 412-638-6890.

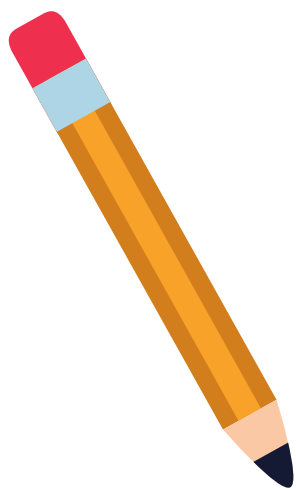

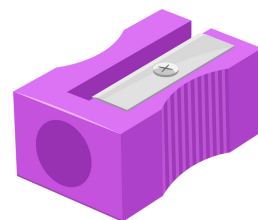

The PW Fall Gathering will be held in Holdrege this September. We will be assembling CWS School Kits again and are requesting donations for school supplies. There will be a table in the Memorial Room to bring your donations, and the list of requested items is below. Thank you!

Six individuals entering Hastings College Fine Arts Hall of Fame

This is the third class entering the Fine Arts Hall of Fame, which aims to recognize Hastings College alumni who are making a difference in their communities through their talents in fine arts.

Six individuals will be inducted to the Hastings College Fine Arts Hall of Fame during a ceremony held in conjunction with Hastings College Homecoming weekend, on Friday, September 23.

The event will be at the Jackson Dinsdale Art Center (700 E. 12th Street), with appetizers at 6:00 p.m. and the ceremony at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $25 per person and may be purchased at hastings.edu/homecoming or by contacting the Hastings College alumni office at 402.461.7363 or alumni@hastings.edu.

WOOT WOOT!!

Linda (Metzger) Johnson '79/'94 MAT founded the South Central Children's Chorale in 1994 with Dr. Robin Koozer '76, a 2021 Fine Arts Hall of Fame inductee, and Julie Soderquist '92. The chorale was berthed following Johnson's thesis presentation on children's choirs for her master's degree in arts and teaching at Hastings College and includes students in fourth through eighth grades. She was also a director for the youth choirs at First Presbyterian Church in Hastings for 16 years.

Johnson received the Wal-Mart Teacher of the Year award in 2009 for her outstanding contributions, both in and out of the classroom. She served as a vocal music teacher at St. Michael's Elementary School for four years and Adams Central High School for 22 years before her retirement in 2020.

The game is usually played by four individuals. The object of play, similar to that of the rummy card games, is to obtain sets of tiles. There are three kinds of sets: chow, a run or sequence of three of the same suit in numerical order; pung, a sequence of three tiles of the same suit and rank, such as three dragons of the same colour or three identical winds; and kong, a pung plus the fourth matching tile. The winner is the first player to hold a complete hand—i.e., four sets and a pair of like tiles (a total of 14 tiles). The strategy of mah-jongg, like that of rummy, is both offensive and defensive: to complete a winning hand as quickly as possible, to block other players by not discarding tiles useful to them, and to build a high-scoring hand.
