*CALL TO WORSHIP

Damen Jensen-Heitmann

The light of God shines into the world,

Not to flatter us, but to reveal the truth.

God's light exposes what is broken, distorted, and unjust,

And calls us toward what is faithful, whole, and true.

Come and see: God is at work among us.

We come to worship the One who purifies, restores, and renews.

Come, let us worship God.

OPENING SCRIPTURE

John 2:13–25

CALL TO CONFESSION

Today our confession will be more than words. As we name what needs to be confessed, we will place symbols on this table: signs of greed, injustice, idolatry, and lack of integrity. These things can distort our worship, our discipleship, and our lives. And as we ask for God's mercy, we will remember that Jesus does not ignore what is broken; he overturns it so that true discipleship and new life can take root.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy and righteous God, you call us to worship you in spirit and in truth. Yet too often, we bring into your house and our lives what does not belong there.

This morning, we confess our greed: our desire to have more than we need, our willingness to profit while others go without, our temptation to measure success by accumulation rather than faithfulness. Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our confession.

We confess our participation in unjust systems: systems that advantage some and harm others, systems we inherit, benefit from, and rarely question, systems that trade compassion for convenience. We confess how easily we center ourselves at the expense of others. Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our confession.

We confess our idolatry: the ways we give our loyalty to comfort, power, nation, ideology, or security instead of trusting fully in you. Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our confession.

We confess our lack of integrity: the gap between what we say on Sunday and how we live the rest of the week, the distance between our words of faith and our daily choices. We confess our willingness to be distracted instead of engaging the world around us. Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our confession.

We confess our silence in the face of injustice: the times we have looked away, stayed quiet, hardened our hearts, or chosen peace over truth when love required courage. Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our confession.

Merciful God, we lay these burdens before you, not to hide them, not to excuse them, but to name them truthfully.

Like Jesus in the temple, turn over what does not reflect your holiness. Disrupt what has grown comfortable. Clear away what obscures your justice and grace.

Forgive us, O God. Cleanse us. Restore us. Make room in us again for true discipleship: discipleship that leads to justice, mercy, and transformed lives.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, the true temple, who overturns sin and raises us to new life. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Friends, hear the good news: The table is overturned, but grace is not.
Jesus does not flip the tables to shame us, but to free us.
Not to drive us away, but to clear a space for mercy, truth, and new life.

In Christ, what was distorted is being restored. What was burdened is being lifted. What was broken is being made new.

Friends, believe the good news: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, we are renewed, and we are called again into lives of justice, integrity, and love.

Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Amen!

CHORAL PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

“How Can I be a Bringer of Peace”

Brett Epperson

How can I be a bringer of peace? What can I do? Who can I be?

How can I be a bringer of Justice that we so endlessly need?

Open my eyes and my ears and my hands and my heart,

That they might open others.

How can I be a bringer of peace? What can I do? What can I be?

Make me a bringer of Justice and Peace.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (A creed for Epiphany by Greg Allen-Pickett)

We believe in one God, creator of all that is, whose light shines in the darkness and whose love never fails.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, the light of the world, who reveals God's grace and glory. We believe that in Jesus Christ, the broken are made whole, the blind receive sight, the lost are found, and grace upon grace is poured out for the life of the world. Through his life, death, and resurrection, God's love is made visible and God's light is revealed.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who opens our eyes to see and our hearts to believe, calling us to follow Christ and to bear his light in the world.

We believe the Church is called to live as a sign of God's grace, to love boldly, to serve faithfully, and to trust in God's renewing work.

With hope and joy, we affirm this faith and commit ourselves to come and see as we seek to follow Jesus. Amen.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

God of abundance and justice, all that we have comes from your hand. As we offer these gifts, we pray that they would be more than ritual. May they be signs of our commitment to lives shaped by your truth. Use these offerings to tear down what harms, to build up what heals, and to bear witness to your kingdom where justice flows and love abounds. We dedicate ourselves along with these gifts, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
